2016 Mayors' Christmas Motorcade

This drive was created in 1959 for the patients of Georgia's Mental Health Hospitals, by Betty Vandiver, the then Governor's wife. Without this event these patients would not receive a gift at all for Christmas. Please help Stham support this great cause with items for men and women. The sizes needed are medium to 3XL. Clothes or personal care items can make the holiday season so much more enjoyable for patients, that have limited, to no family and friends. Puzzles, books, pens and markers, are also requested, along with playing cards and board games. For a more detailed list, contact City Hall.

Donations will be accepted at City Hall thru Monday November 28th.
